DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 34-58, 60-62 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection, except the 35 U.S.C. 101 rejection is maintained because claim 56 is still directed to a computer program product, comprising computer readable code, which is software per se.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

2. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claim 56 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because claim is directed non-statutory subject matter.

claim 56 is directed to a program per se, and "In the start of the art, transitory signals are commonplace as a medium for transmitting computer instruction and thus, in the absence of any evidence to the contrary and give the broadest reasonable interpretation, the scope of a "computer readable storage medium" covers a signal per se." In order to overcome the 35 U.S.C. 101 rejection, the "computer readable storage medium" should be changed to "non-transitory computer readable storage medium".

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1, 34-55, 57-58, 60-62, 66-68 allowed.
4. Claim 36 would have been allowed if the 35 U.S.C. 101 rejection was overcome.

There's no new ground(s) of rejection(s). Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEG § 706.07 (a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136 (a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing data of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing data of this action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period. Then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing data of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the data of this final action.
